Dear Mum,

I thought I would write home today as I have nothing to do and it is very windy out. I recieved the parcel alright gave sister Edwin her stiff and Nellie her's. I would like a spot more cash if you don't mind and also send me down the black shoes as the other crepe sole ones are wearing out and also it is not much good wearing the brown shoes on Sundays and ordinary ones all the rest of the week I don't know what the insect is ~~is~~ its legs fell off as soon as I opened the packet. →

Freddie told me he thinks he is going to be shifted from ~~to~~ father. Ask Jimmie if I can have his ^{scissors} knife. School is in the afternoons this week.
I am going to write to Dick today if I have time.
I haven't got anything more to write about so cheerio for now.

Love from Frank

Pf We had three raid warnings on Saturday and two on Sunday. Talking of Sunday we have our Mass in the old school and at 6 o'clock in the evening we have the rosary and short talk by the priest ~~we~~ have got a different priest now instead of Father Herwin. Last week sang first hymn in Berdeen for four hundred years or so

³
The warnings don't make any difference it doesn't mean that there's any danger so keep cheerful and don't worry. Jimmie's knife is on the overmantle in my room. I have written a lot more as usual than I thought I could.
